Dr. Morse Returns—
Dr. Willis B. Morse, after an absence of several months, has returned to Salem. The doctor, while not so great in avoidupois as when he left, looks well, and says he had a delightful trip. He not only visited many points of interest, but spent much of his time while in the East in study.

Cupid's Busy Day—

SWEET SIXTEEN.

Mr. and Mrs. Hatch Remembered on That Anniversary.

There was a pleasant gathering of friends at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Hatch, on Front street, Tuesday evening; that being the sixteenth anniversary of the marriage of that popular couple. As a slight token of the esteem in which they are held, the visitors presented them a 24-piece set of elegant glassware, Dr. W. S. Mott making a feeling presentation address. A delightful evening followed, and if the genial letter carrier and his estimable wife can manage to have a tithe of the good things wish-d them materialize, their cup of happiness will run over, and they will have a thousand years to enjoy it.

Those present besides the "bridal couple," were: Dr. and Mrs. W. S.
Mott, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Byars, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Steusloff, Mr. and Mrs. D. A. White and daughter, Mrs.
Effie Wright, Mrs. Clara Ferguson, Mr. and Mrs. Sauter and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Lawrence, Miss Emma and Vera Wright, Miss Vera Byars, Miss Anna Wharton of Roseburg, Alice and Opal Hatch, Ben Coomber and Mr. and Mrs. Coomber, Mrs. Hatch's parents, of Kokoma, Indiana.

SPECIAL COUNCIL MEETING

City Fathers Will Take Up Street Improvement Matters Tonight

Mayor Rodgers has called a special meeting of the city council for this evening, to consider street improvements. It is not known just what particular street improvement will be considered, but it is thought that the matter of paving upper State street will be taken up. There is a quorum of councilmen in the city, and there will be no trouble in securing a meeting.

SUPREME COURT DECISIONS

Court Adopts California Ru'cs For Measuring Miners Inch of Water

Besides the ruling in the case of State vs. Dunbar, appealed from Marion county, which was printed in the last issue of The Journal, the following decisions were handed down in the supreme court yesterday:

Gardner vs. Wright.

Gardner, Stuchell and Swift vs.
Wright, a water right suit from Baker county; Hon. R. Eakin, judge; modified in an opinion by Judge King. Plaintiffs claimed title by deed from Estes in 1864, and by prior appropriation, while Wright asserted title through a deed from Estes given in 1893, which water right so conveyed was located 21 years prior to that date. The defense relied upon continuous adverse possession since 1872, but the lower court held that this title could not be set up against plaintiff's claim, for the reason that any after-acquired title inured to plaintiffs under the covenants in the warranty deed to plaintiffs' predecessors in interest, and gave plaintiffs three-eighths of the creek claimed, defendant one-half, the remaining interest not being involved.

The opinion is a lengthy one, covering 28 typewritten pages, and fully discusses the law relative to adverse possession, prior appropriation and other points involved. It sets aside the decree of the circuit court and holds that, notwithstanding the warranty clause in the Estes deed to plaintiffs' grantors, the defendant, Wright, as his subsequent grantee, can claim and hold title adversely, and by reason of his and his grantor's long continued adverse possession, has acquired a first right to sufficient water for his irrigation and domestic wants, awarding to plaintiffs only the surplus. The opinion is probably the first in the state fixing the ratio between miners' inches and "second feet" of water, giving Wright 1½ cubic feet of the flow of the stream per second, its equivalent being given as 60 miner's inches under six-inch pressure, thereby recognizing the ratio of 40 miner's inches to one "second foot" of water. The decree of the lower court in not awarding costs is affirmed.

Alderman vs. Tillamook County.

Edith M. Alderman, defendant and appellant, vs. County of Tillamook.
W. W. Condor, Claud Thayer and S.
S. Johnson, plaintiffs and respondents; decision by Judge Galloway of the circuit court for Tillamook county; reversed. Opinion by Justice Bean. This suit was brought to remove the defendant from the administration of her deceased husband's estate. The complaint set forth that the defendant was attempting to defraud the county of $8127.17 which had been received by her late husband while he acted in the capacity of tax collector. The lower court allowed the claim and removed the widow from the position of administratrix. The supreme court holds that the county could not take this action until it had first proven its claim and the intention of the defendant to defraud.

Other Cases.

M. Putnam, plaintiff and respondent, and J. D. Slalker, defendant and appellant; from Grant county; Davis, judge; reversed. Opinion by Commissioner Slater.

State of Oregon? respondent, vs. F.
K. Reynier, appellant; appeal from Union county; T. H. Crawford,
